

The Consular Corps of Arizona

2010

The Arizona Consular Corps

- Honorary Consuls are appointed by their respective countries and approved by the US. Department of State.
- Each Honorary Consul is the liaison between the country represented and the Government and the citizens of Arizona.
- Additional duties of Honorary Consuls include promotion of business and cultural exchanges and assisting citizens of their represented countries, while living or traveling in Arizona.
- The majority of Honorary Consuls serves without pay, and indeed pays their own expenses.
- At the same time, many of the Honorary Consuls have the same duties as career diplomats.
- Currently 28 countries are represented with the Honorable Brad Brados, representing Brazil, serving as Chairman.

The Consular Corps of Arizona Foundation

- Each year since 1983, the Consular Corps of Arizona has hosted the Ambassadors' Ball, benefiting the Consular Corps of Arizona Foundation.
- The proceeds of the Ambassadors' Ball benefits the Consular Corps Foundation whose mission is to support Global Education, Research and Children's International Issues.
- The Consular Corps of Arizona has contributed nearly One Million dollars to those causes.
- The annual fundraiser is recruiting sponsorship by individuals and/or companies
